

Public Discussion Forum on Global Warming

Sponsored by the Environmental Applied Science and Management Program

Location: VIC303

Room 303, Victoria Building, 285 Victoria Street, Toronto
(N.E. corner of Victoria Street and Dundas Street)

Date: Nov 6, 2008, Thursday, 2:00-4:00 pm

Time	Speaker	Topic
2:00 – 2:15 pm	Ching Lo, PhD	Global Warming? Get Real
2:15 – 3:45 pm	Venerable Haiyun Jimeng	What has religion got to do with global warming science?
3:45 – 4:00 pm	Ching Lo, PhD	Green Think Tank

Dr. Lo is a senior research scientist and an adjunct professor at Ryerson University, Environmental Applied Science and Management Program.

The Venerable Haiyun Jimeng is a present-day Huayen master from the Da Huayen Monastery in the Republic of China (Taiwan). He is the Honorary Director & Visiting Professor at Shaanxi Normal University, Centre for Religious Studies, Institute of Huayen Studies, in the People's Republic of China. He is also an Invited Research Fellow, Chinese Academy of Social Sciences, Shaanxi Normal University, Centre for Buddhist Studies, in the People's Republic of China.

Co-sponsored by the Green Think Tank
www.greenthinktank.org
info@greenthinktank.org

